RESOLUTION

Designating May 5, 2020, as the “National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Native Women and Girls”.

Whereas, according to a study commissioned by the Department of Justice, in some Tribal communities, American Indian women face murder rates that are more than 10 times the national average murder rate;

Whereas, according to the most recently available data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, in 2017, homicide was the sixth leading cause of death for American Indian and Alaska Native females between 1 and 44 years of age;

Whereas little data exist on the number of missing American Indian and Alaska Native women in the United States;

Whereas, on July 5, 2013, Hanna Harris, a member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe, was reported missing by her family in Lame Deer, Montana;

Whereas the body of Hanna Harris was found 5 days after she went missing;

Whereas Hanna Harris was determined to have been raped and murdered, and the individuals accused of committing those crimes were convicted;

Whereas the case of Hanna Harris is an example of many similar cases; and

Whereas Hanna Harris was born on May 5, 1992: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the Senate—

2           (1) designates May 5, 2020, as the “National
3       Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Native
4       Women and Girls”; and

5           (2) calls on the people of the United States and
6       interested groups—

7           (A) to commemorate the lives of missing
8           and murdered American Indian and Alaska Na-
9           tive women whose cases are documented and
10          undocumented in public records and the media;
11          and

12          (B) to demonstrate solidarity with the fam-
13          ilies of victims in light of those tragedies.
